

Liverpool Label Nine x Nine Records announces new releases for 2021!

Following Thom Morecroft's debut album "The Feng Shui and the Sushi" and the first vinyl reissue of Kelley Stoltz's "Crockodials", Nine x Nine records has some exciting new releases planned for 2021.

The first three releases of 2021 are going to be debut albums from Bobhowla and The High Rip and a live single from Thom Morecroft. All of them are available for preorder on our website now. Please check out the individual press releases via the links below.

Nine x Nine is a Liverpool based record label formed in 2019 with a truly independent spirit. Inspired by DIY principles the label works across genres trying to bring out that which may have otherwise never seen the light of day. Whether that be supporting new and emerging artists or working with more well-known names: bringing out new releases, reissuing out of print gems, or unearthing historic never before released recordings. With an artist led approach, Nine x Nine hope to successfully realise the creative ambitions of talented musicians, while also providing premium products for music lovers and enthusiasts to cherish in their collections.

Nine x Nine was set up as a sister label to 81 Renshaw. Set in the building that once housed Bill Harry's iconic Merseybeat magazine, 81 Renshaw is a Liverpool city centre independent record store and venue.
